THE BEET SUGAR BOUNTY

Auditor General Dix Must Show Cause

Lansing, May 21.—Auditor General Dix has been ordered to show cause on the first day of the June term of the supreme court why he should pay the claim of the Michigan sugar company of Bay City for upwards of $27,000 claimed to have been legally earned by the company under the sugar beet bounty law of 1897. The question of the constitutionality of the bounty law will be urged as one of the reasons why the claim should not be paid, but it is not understood that the auditor-general based his refusal to pay the claim on this ground. The Michigan Sugar Co. presented two claims for bounty claimed to have been earned during the season of 1898-99 before the repeal of the law. The auditor-general is understood to have refused their payment on the ground that the money appropriated by the legislature for the purpose had been exhausted. The Bay City concern does not claim that it is entitled to bounty on its product since the repeal of the bounty law.

William Hays Sentenced to Serve Eight Years.

William Hays, the St. Joseph degenerate who confessed to committing several heinous crimes, was this afternoon sentenced to serve eight years at the branch state prison located at Marquette. As Hays is getting pretty well along in years he will undoubtedly never live to come from the prison which is just as well for the community.

It is now believed that many of the crimes which have been committed in St. Joseph in the last few years is the work of Hays. In fact since he has been confined in the county jail awaiting his sentence he has confessed to several things which have been mysteries to the police for some time past.

NEW STATUE OF GEN. GRANT.

The bronze statue of Gen. Ulysses S. Grant, here illustrated, was unveiled in the rotunda of the national capitol at Washington Saturday. It is one of four thus honored. To the left of Grant stands the bronze representation of Thomas Jefferson. To the right is that of Alexander Hamilton, while nearly in front, but on the opposite side of the rotunda, is the statue of Abraham Lincoln. Gen. Grant's statue will face the great bronze doors of the main entrance, and will be the first object to greet visitors to the nation's capitol.

A PRESENT FOR CITY.

J. Stanley Morton Will Give Deed of Morton Cemetery.

Morton cemetery, Benton Harbor's first burying place, should be taken care of. It is a spot dear to many people in this city and something should be done by way of keeping up the grounds.

The cemetery was started as a private burying ground by the late Henry Morton and as time rolled along other people were given the right to lay their departed friends there.

During Mr. Morton's life he took care of the grounds and since his death his son, J. Stanley Morton, has kept the ornamental trees trimmed as best he could.

It would pay the city of Benton Harbor to take the cemetery and hire a sexton to take care of it the same as Crystal Springs. J. Stanley Morton will give the city a deed of the property for nothing. The lots in the cemetery are nearly all sold, but not more than half of them are paid for, and should the city take the property and compel the people wishing to bury there to show their deed, and if they could not do this, pay for their lot, there would be a sufficient revenue to pay a sexton his salary.

Here is a matter the city council should consider.

By Telegraph to Evening News.

Washington, May 21.—The United States supreme court has affirmed the decision of the court of appeals in the Kentucky governorship case.

This decision is against the last hope of Taylor and makes Beckham governor of Kentucky.

NOMINATIONS COME HIGH.

Stearns and Bliss Spent Money in Bay County.

Bay City, May 21.—The main topic of conversation in the city is the result of the caucuses in the two cities. A prominent alderman says he was offered $500 to do what he could in his ward to elect the Bliss delegation, but declined it. It is also common talk that the Stearns forces paid out large sums for workers at the polls. It is variously estimated that from $10,000 to $20,000 was used in Bay county by both parties.

PLUMMER GOLD BASTAR SILVER

They Carried Off Prizes
from South Bend.

Two Best Athletes in Saturday's Meet.

Other Home Boys Not Far Behind.

The big triangular track and field meet between the South Bend, Elkhart and Benton Harbor high schools held in South Bend Saturday closed with the score, South Bend, 72.5; Benton Harbor, 57.5; Elkhart, 8. But that doesn't tell the story. Of the fifteen events Benton Harbor won first place in eight, South Bend in six and Elkhart in one. Elkhart's unexpected weakness allowed South Bend to creep up on seconds and thirds, which added to the firsts gained, won the pennant for South Bend. Captain Harry Plummer was presented with the beautiful gold medal for the highest individual record, and Claire Bastar with the elegant silver medal for the second highest record. Plummer had 24 points and Bastar 20.5. In the 100 yard dash Bastar defeated Staley, who had never been defeated before in this event, and in the half mile run Wagner, the champion high school half mile runner of Indiana, was defeated by O'Hara.

The local team composed of Captain Harry Plummer, Clair Bastar, Reuben Durkee, Herbert Allen and Barratt O'Hara and General Secretary A. L. Burrucker, who had charge of the physical condition of the boys, Trainer Robert Busby, Mascot Johnson, the clever young cake walker and mirth provoker and rooters John and Arthur Lee, Clarence Chaddock, W. F. Murphy, Arthur Fields and H. B. Smith left St. Joseph on the Three-I local freight 7 o'clock Saturday morning and arrived in South Bend near noon. The boys were met at the train by a party of gentlemanly Indiana athletes, who escorted the Michigan lads to the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

After a light lunch the boys were taken to the fair grounds where already were assembled Elkhart's stalwart athletes and seventy odd rooters, who were in no wise bashful in the delivery of their school yell and in the waving of the purple and the gold. The cars kept unloading cargoes of South Bend supporters until the immense grand stand and auditorium groaned under loads of pretty Indiana maids and handsome youths, all waving the blue and the hay.

The summary of events:
100-yard dash—Bastar, Benton Harbor, first; Staley, South Bend, second; Wagner, South Bend, third. Time, 11 1-5.

Shot put—Plummer, Benton Harbor, first; Staley, South Bend, second; Drollinger, South Bend, third. Distance 40 feet, 10 inches.

Standing high jump—Dodge, Elkhart, first; Staley, South Bend, second; Bastar and Wagner, tie for third place. Height, 4 feet.

Throwing base ball—Plummer, Benton Harbor, first; Keller, South Bend, second; Brademus, South Bend, third. Distance, 300 feet.

Running high jump—Bastar and Plummer, of Benton Harbor, tied for first place; Brademus, South Bend, third.

220-yard dash—Bastar, Benton Harbor, first; Wagner, South Bend, second; O'Hara, Benton Harbor, third. Time, 2:15.

Throwing hammer—Wagner, South Bend, first; Drollinger, South Bend, second; Plummer, Benton Harbor, third. Distance, 81 feet, 9 inches.

Broad jump—Plummer, Benton Harbor, first; Wagner, South Bend, second; Drollinger, South Bend, third. Distance 17 feet, 4 inches.

Eight hundred and eighty-yard run—O'Hara, Benton Harbor, first; Wagner, South Bend, second; Applegate, South Bend, third. Time, 2:21.

Standing broad jump—Drollinger, South Bend, first; Plummer, Benton Harbor, second; Bastar, Benton Harbor, third. Distance, 9 feet, 4 inches.

Football punt—Bastar, Benton Harbor, first; Wagner, South Bend, second; Plummer, Benton Harbor, third. Distance, 134 feet.

Three mile bicycle race—Keller, South Bend, first; O'Hara, Benton Harbor, second; Hoover, South Bend, third. No time given out.

The Benton Harbor boys were well treated by the South Bend people and they found the athletes a very gentlemanly set.

Lindsay of Dowagiac, Horace Correll of Niles, and Albert Smith were in the audience and cheered on every occasion for Benton Harbor.

The team left South Bend at 7 Saturday evening and arrived in St. Joseph at 12:15.

The Benton Harbor high school team will compete in the state meet at Ann Arbor next Friday and Saturday.

Statue of Gen. Grant Unveiled in Washington.

PLACED IN THE NATIONAL CAPITOL.

Presented to the Nation by the Grand Army of the Republic—Description of the Statue—The Ceremonies.

Washington, May 21.—The statue of Gen. Grant, presented by the Grand Army of the Republic to the nation, was unveiled in the great rotunda of the capitol Saturday, and elaborate ceremonies commemorative of the event were held in the hall of representatives in the presence of a vast concourse of people, who included the widow, daughter and descendants of the hero of Appomattox, hundreds of his comrades in arms, the officers and committee of the G. A. R. and many persons distinguished in military, political and social circles. The statue of the preeminent chief of the union forces in the civil war represents the contributions of thousands of his comrades of the G. A. R., none of whom was allowed to subscribe more than 15 cents, and is the result of a movement started shortly after Gen. Grant's death at McGregor, in July, 1889. It is the work of Franklin Simmons, an American sculptor.

Description of Monument.

Of marble of heroic size, it stands on a granite pedestal emblazoned with a bronze seal of the G. A. R., and represents the grim old hero in the full uniform of a general equipped for the field, with top boots and gauntlets, his cloak over his left arm, his hand resting on the hilt of his sword. The counterfeits of statesmen, soldiers and pioneers in marble and bronze adorn the old house of representatives chamber of the capitol, now Statuary hall, but these are gifts of the individual states. Grant's statue was unveiled in the rotunda as befitting the statue of one whose valiant service was for the whole nation. There it will remain with the statues of Jefferson, Hamilton and Lincoln, which also are in the rotunda an example and an inspiration to future generations. The hero of Appomattox stands near the western entrance, flanked on either side by the famous paintings of the "Surrender of Cornwallis," and the "Surrender of Burgoyne."

The unveiling took place shortly before noon in the presence of Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Sartoris, Miss Sartoris, the officers of the G. A. R., Speaker Henderson and Senator Frye, president pro tem of the senate.

The fact of the unveiling was kept secret and only a few outsiders witnessed it. There were no ceremonies. Miss Sartoris, attired in white, drew the lanyard that uncovered the statue. Mrs. Grant inspected it critically and smiled her approval. The party then repaired to the hall of the house, where the ceremonies took place.

The ceremonies in the house were profoundly impressive. They consisted of addresses by Messrs. McClary (Minn.), Grosvenor (O.), Richardson (Tenn.), Warner (Ill.), Linney (N. C.), Gardner (Mich.), Brosius (Penn.) and Dooliver (Ia.).

Grizzled Veterans Present.

The gallery opposite the speaker's rostrum had been reserved for the members of the G. A. R., and was crowded with grizzled veterans come to pay tribute to their loved commander. In the area in front of the speaker's desk sat the officers of the grand army and the committee appointed by the grand army encampment at Philadelphia, who had been granted the privilege of the floor for the occasion by a special resolution of the house.

In the gallery reserved for Mrs. Grant and her family were Mrs. Grant, her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris, Lieut. Sartoris, Miss Sartoris and Miss Grant, a daughter of Col. Fred Grant.

Exactly at 12 Speaker Henderson's gavel fell. After an impressive prayer by the blind chaplain, the committee of the grand army, among whom were Commander in Chief Albert D. Shaw, Gen. S. S. Burdett, Gen. R. B. Heath, S. V., Commander in Chief Irvin Robbins and Chaplain in Chief J. L. Grimm, were ushered into the house.

After the speaker had announced the order of the day, Mr. McClary, of Minnesota, chairman of the committee on library, sent to the clerk's desk and had read the letter addressed to the speaker presenting the statue of Gen. Grant to the nation.

The letter was signed by the committee of the G. A. R., consisting of Gen. S. S. Burdette, of Washington; Gen. R. B. Heath, of Philadelphia; Gen. Russell A. Alger, of Detroit; Gen. Seldon Connor, of Augusta, Me.; Col. E. S. Grant, of Middleport, O., and Hon. Horace S. Clark, of Mattoon, Ill.

Resolution of Acceptance.

Mr. McClary then offered the following resolution:

"Resolved, by the house (the senate concurring) that the thanks of congress be given to the Grand Army of the Republic for the statue of Gen. Ulysses S. Grant."

"Resolved, That the statue be accepted and placed in the capitol, and that a copy of these resolutions, signed by the presiding officers of the house of representatives and the senate, be forwarded to the chairman of the committee of the Grand Army of the Republic on the Grant memorial."

The eloquent eulogies of Gen. Grant, which followed, were listened to attentively, and several times wrung round after round of applause from floor and galleries.

pneumatic tube system. An effort was made to secure the adoption of an amendment to appropriate $225,000 to carry out existing contracts for the service in New York, Brooklyn, Boston and Philadelphia, but no action was taken upon it, special orders superseding the appropriation bill.

Senator Teller introduced an amendment to the sundry civil appropriation bill appropriating $200,000 for the money supposed to have been embezzled in Cuba. The amendment provides the appropriation "to enable the president of the United States to refund any money that has been embezzled or in any way misappropriated by the civil or military appointees of the United States from funds collected in the Island of Cuba by the military authorities of the United States."

Will Visit Canton.

Washington, May 21.—The president has decided to go to Canton late in June for a rest of two or three weeks and incidentally to attend the monster nonpartisan celebration which is being arranged for July 4. This decision is contingent upon the adjournment of congress before that time, but from information Saturday received from leaders in both houses there is reason to believe an adjournment will be reached by June 9 or June 11. The president will be accompanied by Mrs. McKinley, and if nothing of special importance occurs which would necessitate his earlier return he will remain in Canton until about the middle of July, and possibly longer.

A DARING THEFT.

A Solitary Robber Carries Off the Treasure Box of a Kansas City Hotel—Secures a Big Sum.

Kansas City, Mo., May 21.—A solitary robber walked into the Coates hotel at 11:30 o'clock Sunday night and in the presence of a half-dozen men, among them a colonel in the Missouri national guard, and the watchman of the hotel, walked off with the strong box belonging to the cigar stand. Brandishing a revolver and threatening to shoot anyone who moved or spoke, he backed out, mounted his horse and rode away. The box contained valuables and money aggregating $1,500. The work was performed so quickly and expeditiously that the spectators were dumfounded. Night Clerk Gossett claims that the robber's name is Fishback and he knows him well.

SERMON TO CLASS '00

Rev. W. J. Cady Gives the Baccalaureate Address Before High School Graduates.

THEME "GUARDING THE HEART"

Need of the World is Men and Women Whose Hearts Throb With Sympathy.

A union service was held at the First Methodist church last evening in honor of the Benton Harbor high school class and Rev. W. J. Cady preached the baccalaureate sermon to the class of '00. There was a large congregation. The following ministers occupied places on the platform and assisted in the services: Revs. Dr. Cogshall, E. A. Hoffman, C. E. Maxwell, J. W. Taylor and L. W. Earl.

Preliminary to his excellent sermon Mr. Cady spoke of the connection between education and religion, showing the origin of the baccalaureate sermon. He spoke without notes and with an eloquence that held the most inattentive.

"Keep thy heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life," was his text, taken from the Proverbs of Solomon. He preferred the revised version, "With all thy guarding guard thy heart."

"Solomon," he said "was endowed with large experience, he was endowed with large power from his father David, and endowed with wisdom and knowledge direct from God in answer to his prayer. In power and glory he was second to none of the kings of his day. In all his wise proverbs there is none that comes more directly to youth. Solomon had seen wealth and wisdom accrue about him, he had witnessed the growth of the power of his kingdom and yet compared to it all he saw nothing of so great value as a heart attuned to God and he was constrained to say, 'Above all thy guarding, guard thy heart.'"

"Today there is need for men of heart as well of intellectual attainment and executive ability." He recalled from the bright figures of the world's history the men who have made epochs and declared that they were all men of large heart and large sympathy. The men in the front ranks today are men whose hearts are throbbing with sympathy for their fellow men.

He spoke of the infamy of the postal frauds in Cuba and of the military scandal in our own state, and said they brought the blush of shame to honest cheeks.

"The world needs men true and strong, that is, patriotic, Christian men. From the heart comes character and character determines destiny. How can you guard the heart? Guard well those inner secrets of power. God has endowed you with. Into your lives God has poured wonderful gifts. The new century is open before you and as one has said the new century will be one of the heart as the closing one has been one of the hand. There are visions of evil everywhere. The prints are teeming with them and they fill the billboards on every hand. Shut your eyes to the evil and look forward. In a single book or a single song the Trojan horse may enter and burst forth into an armed foe."

The preacher advised the class not to think that their education was complete but to press on into larger fields which were beckoning them to enter. He advised them not to be in a hurry and to well prepare themselves for the lines they expected to follow. If their education was completed at 40 it was not too late, for in three, five or ten years, a well equipped person can do more than it would be possible for them to do in years poorly equipped for the work they undertook. He impressed the thought that education if rightly used would make them a power for good.

MOVE TO MARK

BEN KING'S GRAVE

Cities of the Country Ready to Contribute to Fund.

It is understood in St. Joseph that there is being organized a movement for the purpose of establishing a fund to build a monument over the grave of the late bard Ben King, who was a St. Joseph boy. The movement is attracting general attention in cities where Ben King spent the best part of his life. It is said that many Chicago people, who were associates and admirers of the deceased bard will take an active part in raising the funds. H. W. Davis has started the movement and it is hoped that a generous amount will be raised.

The movement will be advertised to a certain extent in the state papers so that the admirers of Ben King will have an opportunity to show their appreciation of the man who during his short life made thousands of homes happier with his sparkling verse. It is expected that the St. Joseph people will take the initiative in raising the fund. There is at present no mark over the grave in the St. Joseph cemetery which holds the earthly remains of the only St. Josephite whose name is a household word throughout the country.

The supreme court has decided that where insanity is an issue in a case the right to express an opinion of defendant's sanity or insanity is not confined to experts. On this ground a new trial has been granted to Maurice Casey, of Alpena, who was sentenced to 25 years at Jackson for shooting his wife with intent to murder. At his trial the court held that a witness was not competent to express an opinion on the subject of insanity and excluded the testimony.

Michigan Knights of the Grip are in session at Grand Rapids. The election of officers resulted as follows: Grand counselor, J. E. Moore, of Jackson; junior counselor, H. H. DAMAGE CASE REVERSED.

Prof. Wright Had Right to Explain His Suspicions.

Detroit, May 21.—The supreme court has not only reversed the verdict secured by Katherine Shinglemeyer against Oliver A. Wright for $500 damages for slander and false imprisonment, but denied a new trial of the case. The opinion is written by Justice Long, and is unanimously concurred in. The court says that under the uncontradicted testimony, Wright could not be held liable for false imprisonment and that if Miss Shinglemeyer was illegally restrained the officer alone was responsible for it.

The court made an important ruling in reference to a letter written by Wright to the superintendent of police in Columbus, stating that he suspected Miss Shinglemeyer of stealing his wheel. The supreme court held that it was Wright's duty to give to the police all the information in his possession, and his suspicions. "Such communications," says the court, "are made in the strictest confidence, and are as sacred in the eye of the law as the communication between client and lawyer or patient and physician. They are made for the exclusive use of the officers, and should be forever locked in their breasts. It is very doubtful if the detectives could have been compelled to disclose in court any of these privileged communications."

Suffering Rarely Equalled.

Frontier, Mich., May 21.—Mr. W. D. Bailey, a well known merchant of this place, says: "I would be very ungrateful not to make known what Dr. Chase's Ointment has done for me. For upwards of 15 years I have suffered untold misery with the piles. I have been treated and operated upon repeatedly without result, and for five years have had to inject warm in order to pass anything without almost killing me. One day seeing Dr. Chase's advertisement, I wrote him about my case and he sent me a box of Ointment. I used it as directed and now, six months later, I can safely say that I am perfectly cured."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is positively guaranteed to cure piles in any form, eczema, salt rheum and any of the terrible itching skin diseases now so common. HANNON'S PONY WON.

New Favorite Appears on the Benton Harbor Track to Surprise Old Timers.

THE HEFFNER PONY BEATEN.

An Exciting Race Took Place on Broadway Saturday Afternoon.

Benton Harbor "bookmakers" were fooled Saturday afternoon at the running race on Broadway between Sam Hannon's pony and a pony owned by William Heffner.

For years the Heffner pony has taken every race when there could be found a horse owned about here foolhardy enough to run up against what the talent has long considered a sure proposition. At the race Saturday afternoon there was considerable money up on the result and Mr. Hannon backed his own pony against a field of betters. He cleared up a nice little purse in addition to the $20 purse put up by the owners of the two horses.

Willie Condon rode the Hannon pony and a boy named Rome rode the other contestant. A collection was taken up, amounting to something over $5, for the boys who rode. This was the only admission fee asked of the 400 or 500 people who witnessed the race. It was suggested that the $5 be divided between the two boys but Rome objected, claiming that the winner should take the entire amount and that he was sure to win. This was agreed to.

S. M. Austin started the horses and the Heffner pony started slightly in advance of the word. L. W. Milbourne was judge. Before the end of the course was reached the Hannon pony had passed his rival and easily won the race.

Mr. Hannon is rejoicing over the result. He has always owned this pony with the exception of a year that he was owned by Mr. Baker of Dowagiac and the pony has been in the north woods every fall for a series of years hunting deer.

EARLY IN THE FIELD.

Indiana Republicans Booming Senator Fairbanks as Presidential Candidate in 1904.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 21.—Indiana republican leaders and delegates to the national convention will go to Philadelphia with the intention of starting a boom for Senator Fairbanks for president in 1904. They have talked the matter over among themselves, and have come to the conclusion that the time is ripe to begin. Since Congressman Landis, in a speech before the state convention, announced that Indiana would propose the name of Senator Fairbanks for president in 1904, it has been regarded as almost a certainty that Senator Fairbanks will be a candidate for the nomination.

An Awful Deed.

Pueblo, Col., May 21.—Frenzied by a jealous quarrel with his wife, Calvin Kimbren (colored), formerly a corporal in company M, Twenty-fifth United States infantry, Sunday morning shot his wife twice, once in the abdomen and once across the neck, and then deliberately and in the coldest blood, put a revolver to the heads of 15-year-old Ethel Strauss and 11-year-old Jessie M. Skaggs and fired, killing the latter girl instantly, the other girl living for some hours.

THE SACREDNESS OF PARENTHOOD

Fifth in Rev. A. K. Beam's Series on "Purity."

In his sermon on "Sacredness of Parenthood," the fifth in his series on "Purity," Rev. A. K. Beam at the Universalist church Sunday said:

Were it possible for the full import of that phrase, sacredness of parenthood, to appeal to the major portion of humanity it would immediately revolutionize the world. It would put a new, sweet song into the mouth of creation and the music of the eternal would float on the airs encircling this common earth.

Mankind will rise, many degrees and advance with much greater rapidity when it awakens from the hideous nightmare that the established order of things, the natural processes of the universe, are Godless and ought to be supplanted by something from without. Everything in all nature from the bursting of a rose bud in the hands of an intelligent florist, to the coming of an immortal child to the arms of anxious parents, is beautiful and it is sad when we warp and dwarf our minds so as to unfit ourselves for the appreciation of that beauty.

Parentage! How much delicious mystery is wrapped up in that word. How marvelous that we can reflect ourselves in a child, what power has been delegated to human beings, male and female. To this sub-creator man is given a power, the abuse of which means an introduction to the darkest hell known to earth; the legitimate use of which brings the holiest experiences known to the sons and daughters of God.

Never can the coming of a babe out of the infinite become commonplace if conceived in love and born in affection. As we consider the question on high grounds with a sincerity worthy of earnest men and women, how perfectly we realize that "when the right attitude of mind has come we will have a deep and abiding sense of the sacredness of the reproductive functions; we will see God himself in reproduction."

One of our duties as parents is, in a sense, to get our children, as quickly as possible, to be able to do without us. I refer to our equipping them so they could survive, stand on their feet, and live out an independent life were we to be taken away. Too often we do things for children when we should teach the children to do them themselves. And the child should never be robbed of its individuality; there is such a thing as bending, as training the human will, instead of breaking it.

Parenthood has its limitations as much as childhood; and it is well that we parents do not play the infallible act in any particular. Someone has suggested that children have the power of a mental X-ray. Whatever figure we may use, it is a fact that children are not long deceived; and it is not what we say or do but what we really are that, in the last analysis, impresses the child. There are times when we should frankly admit our ignorance. And I am certain we have no business talking to our children as though we are now or ever have been different from common erring humanity. I do not mean that we should debase ourselves. There are too many human "worms of the dust" already. But a frank, honest course should be pursued in relation to our children; and while they will come to know something of our limitations they will think the more of what there is of parental worth. Let us above all things show ourselves worthy of the companionship of our growing sons and daughters; and cultivate that close, tender relation that begets the truest confidence, the sublimest trust. Parenthood, blessed parenthood! Thou art a sacred and serious matter. Let us so treat it. We all have so much to learn. But through it all let us avoid the extremes of either being giddy or melancholy; and let us in no way shrink the great responsibility; but, acting faithfully our part, trust the Power that has ordained it so.

It is quite probable that the following in regard to amusements will be passed by the general conference of the Methodist church now in session at Chicago:

Our church has from the beginning of its history insisted that dancing, playing at games of chance, attending theatres, horse races, circuses, dancing parties or patronizing dancing schools and other amusements which cannot be used in the name of the Lord Jesus, are perilous to the spiritual life and influence of the members of our church, and enervating to the spiritual power of the church in the great work of saving souls.

A FEW days ago a party of Dunkards visited this section in search of homes for a large number of people of that denomination. It was stated that the colony would be located here and that a large tract of land had been secured for the purpose. The committee evidently has not reached any decision for they were at Traverse City Saturday and told the inhabitants of that place that they had found there the land their people was looking for—the same story that they told in St. Joseph. Perhaps the good people want a bonus.
The Dunkards are good people but poor citizens. They do not believe in voting at an election as it is too worldly for them. They observe the practice of washing each other's feet at religious services and what they lack in citizenship they try to make up in cleanliness.

GOLD DEMOCRATS.

Conference to Decide Whether to Name a National Ticket to Be Held in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 21.—Leaders of gold democratic organizations in this city and state are expecting about 50 persons at the conference called to meet here Wednesday. They say every district in the state will be represented, and the meeting is for a conference to determine what the gold democrats will do in the coming campaign. The call was issued by John R. Wilson, as member of the national committee, and S. I. Perkins, as state chairman. They say the gold democrats will determine whether they will put a national ticket in the field. Nothing final will be done till after the national democratic convention in June. If that convention nominates Bryan and reaffirms the Chicago platform, the Indiana gold democrats will do all in their power to put a national ticket in the field.

A Tasteless Drink.

Frederick Villiers, in his letter about Magerfontein, relates this incident, says the London Leader: After the battle he came on some of the wounded enemy. "The Scandinavian in command had a bayonet thrust through his stomach and was dying. He signed to me that he was thirsty. I lifted him up and gave him a cup of condensed milk. A wounded companion lying by his side said, in very good English: 'It's no use to give it him, sir; it only runs out of the hole in his stomach.' This was true, but still the poor fellow had the sensation of the refreshing draught passing down his throat. It was his last drink. I can see his eager, hungry look even now, and, though an enemy, I wish I could have done more for him. A few hours afterward he was buried by the side of the heroes of the Highland brigade."

Coins Hidden by Cromwell's Troops.

A remarkable discovery of coins has been made at Houghton, midway between Blackburn and Preston, at a farmhouse belonging to Mr. Thomas Crook, near Houghton Tower, the seat of Sir James De Houghton, and the scene of one of the Cromwellian advances. The coins, says the London Leader, which number 55, are of silver, varying in value and dated near the end of the fifteenth and the beginning of the sixteenth century. They were discovered under the thatch of a roof, where it is conjectured they were placed for safety from plunder by Cromwell's troops. They are in a remarkably good state of preservation, and were in a curious bag of wash leather.

Dates of Easter.

The New York World almanac contains a table giving the date of Easter Sunday in each year of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. It seems the date falls within the limits between March 22 and April 25. In 1818 it was March 22. In 1845 and again in 1856 it was March 23. In 1886 the date fell on April 25—the limit—and in 1943 it will occur again.
In the year 2000 (as it was in 1849) the date falls on April 23—the date of Shakespeare's birth and death.—

Riotous Scenes Attend Demonstrations of Rejoicing Over the Relief of Mafeking—Plot to Depose Kruger.

London, May 21.—Displayed in the most conspicuous style in the Daily Express is the dominant war news of the morning: "We have the best reason for stating that in the last 24 hours a telegram has been received at the foreign office, addressed personally to the prime minister, from President Kruger, proposing terms of peace. The exact terms of the message cannot be stated, but we believe it is couched in an exceedingly humble strain."

It is inconceivable of course that Lord Salisbury can have sent any reply except the one that stands ready on the lip of every Briton—unconditional surrender.

Seeks Cessation of Hostilities.

The New York Herald says: Lorenzo Marques, May 19.—The Transvaal government decided to-day to send a message to Lord Roberts requesting a cessation of hostilities, demanding a guarantee that the lives of all colonials fighting with the Boers shall be spared, and stating that unless these terms are granted the mines will be blown up and Johannesburg destroyed.

The government has been for some time considering the destruction of the mines.
President Kruger and the executive council were against the proposition, but strong popular pressure was brought to bear in favor of it.

President Kruger has had a dream that the war would be ended within three weeks, which he firmly believes.

There is much uncertainty in Pretoria, where Kruger is the only strong hand. The Boer president told me that he would fight until the last cartridge.

Notwithstanding the discouraging situation, President Steyn maintains a cheery and bold demeanor.

Still Rejoicing.
The boisterous rejoicings over the news from Mafeking have become riots in parts of London, Aberdeen and Belfast and elsewhere in the United Kingdom. In the Finchley district of suburban London a mob stoned the railway station master's house and smashed the windows of a draper's shop, setting the building on fire also, although whether by accident or design it is not yet known.

Two clerks were injured. The house of a Boer sympathizer at Harleston was attacked by a large crowd and the windows were shattered. The police charged the mob and were greeted with a shower of decayed eggs.
Numerous arrests were made and the police reserves were called out.

Special prayers of thanksgiving were offered Sunday in the churches of the United Kingdom. The lord bishop of London, Dr. Mandell Creighton, who preached before the queen at Windsor, alluded to the relief of Mafeking, and clergymen generally found in the event their topic for the day.

Boer sympathizers stoned a procession of shipyard employees at Belfast, and there were some disorders in Birmingham.

At Dover the business establishment of J. Brown, a member of the local chamber of commerce, was wrecked by a mob. The police were unable to cope with the disturbance, and the local artillery and volunteers were called out. As the rioting continued the Royal artillery was called upon to suppress the mob. The windows of buildings adjoining Mr.
Brown's were smashed. Numerous arrests were made.

Details Still Lacking.
Details of the relief are still wanting, the British military authorities being without dispatches. Lord Roberts wires that he knows of the relief only through a press agency.
Lord Lansdowne, however, announces that the war office expects direct news to-day.

Plot to Depose Kruger.
The Daily Telegraph is advised that a plot has been discovered at Pretoria to depose President Kruger and to surrender the Transvaal during the present month. Progressive Dutchmen and members of the judiciary are asserted to have been parties to the movement.

Suffered Heavily.
A Cape Town correspondent reasserts that the Irish-American ambulance corps from Chicago suffered heavily during the fighting at Kroonstad, and that United States Consul Hay had protested vainly to President Kruger against using the corps on the fighting line.

Willing to Surrender.
London, May 21.—A special dispatch from Kroonstad says that Gen. Dewet has sent word that he is prepared to surrender conditionally with his entire command.

Later—It now appears that the Dewet who offered to surrender with 1,000 men was not the well-known
Gen. Dewet, but Commandant Dewet.
He stipulated that his men should be allowed to return to their farms.
Lord Roberts replied that the surrender must be unconditional.

Will Not Be a Candidate.

Frankfort, Ky., May 21.—Ex-Gov.
W. O. Bradley gave out a statement that he will not be a candidate for governor in the event the supreme court decides in favor of the democrats in the contest cases, necessitating an election this fall. "I would not be eligible," said he, "but even if I were I would not accept the nomination."

Gold Exports.

New York, May 21.—Exports of gold and silver from this port to all countries for last week aggregated $1,300, 205 silver bars and coin, and $3,231, 164 gold.

Professor Atwater's Calorimeter Will Be Seen at the Paris Exposition.

Visitors at the Paris exposition will have an opportunity to see the calorimeter with which Prof. Atwater, of Wesleyan university, made the celebrated experiments proving that alcohol is food, the subject which stirred up the W. C. T. U., especially in Chicago. Prof. Atwater's apparatus has been taken by the government, is being packed under the supervision of Dr. William Evans, of the United States department of agriculture, and will be sent to Paris at once, where it will form a prominent part of the international exposition.

The experiments performed by Prof. Atwater are regarded by Uncle Sam as being of invaluable importance internationally, as nothing ever attempted in the world's history has shown the relative value, nutritively, of various food stuffs, as the calorimeter.

The calorimeter shipped to Paris includes a metal pump, the different measuring devices, a respiration chamber furnished with a folding bed, table and chairs, and arrangements for a current of purified air for days for the man upon whom the experiment is being made. With the model of the respiration calorimeter will also be a bomb calorimeter for measuring the heats of combustion of chemical compounds, including those of food materials. These measurements form an essential part of the experiments with the respiration calorimeter. The bomb calorimeter consists of a steel bomb lined with platinum, within which the substance to be tested is burned. This bomb is immersed in water contained in a metal cylinder, the heat developed by the burning of the substance being learned from the rise in temperature of the water, which is measured by thousandths of a degree.

Automobiles in Germany's Army.

The German reichstag has just voted an appropriation of $55,000 to the government for experiments in the employment of automobiles in the army. Some trials have already been made, but without having been sufficiently complete for the results to prove conclusive. A more exhaustive experiment may now be made in various military uses for these vehicles and principally for the transportation of supplies. It is highly possible that in a short time the system will be tried for moving heavy pieces of artillery. The German war ministry avails itself of every new scientific invention.

 A DETECTIVE STORY
 BY
EDGAR MORETTE
 [Copyright, 1899, by Frederick A. Stokes Company.]

CHAPTER III.
DR. MURDOCK'S PROBLEM.
 Spargue's stag dinner was virtually over when a servant brought in a copy of the Evening Tempest. The dessert had been removed, the coffee and liqueurs had been served, and the guests had lighted their cigars. Dr. Murdock, who proceeded to glance leisurely through its columns.
 "Ah! this will do," he exclaimed, at last. "Here is something which will, I think, answer our purpose."
"MYSTERIOUS SHOTS IN WALL STREET.
WHO FIRED THEM?
STORY OF A STRAY SATCHEL.
THE POLICE PUZZLED.
 "While on his beat, at a quarter past five o'clock this afternoon, Policeman John Flynn, hearing the report of a pistol from the direction of the Knickerbocker bank—
 "The Knickerbocker bank!" interrupted the young broker. "Mr. Dunlap, that interests you. Do your directors indulge in pistol practice at the board meetings?"
 "What is that about the Knickerbocker bank?" asked the man to whom this speech was addressed. Having been engaged with his neighbor in an earnest discussion on financial questions, he had not been listening to the general conversation.
 Murdock adjusted his eyeglasses and quietly resumed:
 "Policeman John Flynn, hearing the report of a pistol from the direction of the Knickerbocker bank, in Wall street, started at the top of his speed toward that building. When he was within about 20 yards of the bank another shot rang out, and at the same instant a man darted down the steps and ran toward Broadway." Richard Dunlap, president of the Knickerbocker bank, was listening at-

"AH! THIS WILL DO."
 tentively enough now. Behind the calm mask of the financier there was the evident anxiety of the bank president.
 For the stability of a bank, like the honor of a woman, is at the mercy of every passing rumor.
 "He carried in his hand a small satchel, which he dropped as soon as he saw that he was pursued. After an exciting chase Flynn overtook him, whom he recognized as Michael Quinlan, alias Shorty Duff, a well-known sneak thief. On the way back to the bank the policeman questioned his prisoner about the pistol shots.
 Quinlan vehemently denied having fired them; but admitted that he had stolen the satchel. His story is that, as he was pushing the bank, the outer door was ajar.
 Seeing the satchel in the vestibule, he entered, crouching low in order to avoid being seen through the inner door, the upper portion of which is of plate glass. Scarcely had he laid his hands upon the satchel when he was startled by the report of a pistol. For a moment he was dazed and undecided how to act. Then, as no one seemed to take any notice of his presence, he was quietly slipping off, when a second shot was fired. Panicked, he took to his heels, only to be captured by Flynn.
 "On reaching the bank Flynn found the outer door closed, but not fastened. The heavy iron gate between it and the inner door was securely locked, however, so that it was impossible to enter. The Knickerbocker bank has a second entrance, on Exchange place. But this, too, is protected by a massive iron gate, which also was found locked. Flynn rapped for assistance, and the call having been answered by Policeman Kilpatrick, he and Flynn, he left the former to watch the Exchange place door, and the latter to guard the entrance on Wall street, while he took his prisoner to the police station.
 "Messengers were at once dispatched to the house of Richard Dunlap, the president of the bank, and to that of Mr. George S. Rutherford, the cashier. The former was not at home, and the family being out of town, there was no one who knew where he was spending the evening.
 Every eye turned toward Richard Dunlap as this paragraph was read.
 His features remained impassive, under the full control of the veteran financier; but to an observant eye like Sturgis', the man's real anxiety was bettrayed by the unconscious action of his right hand, which lay upon the table and played nervously with a fork.
 "Yes," said the banker, carelessly, feeling the curious gaze of the other guests upon him, and answering their unspoken questions, "yes, that is true; I did not tell my housekeeper that I was invited to dine by my friend Spargue this evening. There was, of course, no reason why I should. Well, Dr. Murdock, did they find Rutherford?"
 Murdock had looked up while the banker was speaking. He now letura-methods. Of course, it may turn out that it was the policeman who stole the satchel from Shorty Duff."

 "Perhaps," answered Sturgis, imperturbably.
 Murdock smiled.
 "Well, gentlemen," said he, "I accept Mr. Sturgis' conditions. If you are willing," he continued, turning to the reporter, "our host will hold the stakes and decide the wager."
 "I, for one, agree with Sprague," said Dr. Thurston. "I am disappointed in the problem. I have seen Sturgis unravel some extremely puzzling tangles in my day; and each case would not be hard to find. Why, no longer ago than this evening, on our way here, we stumbled upon a most peculiar case —oh—oh!—er—please pass the cognac, Sprague. I wish I had some like it in my cellar; it is worth its weight in gold."
 Dr. Thurston had met Sturgis' steady gaze and had understood that, for some reason or other, the reporter did not wish him to relate their adventure of the afternoon.
 Only one person appeared to notice the abrupt termination of his story.
 This was Murdock, who had looked up at the speaker with mild curiosity, and who had also intercepted the reporter's warning glance at his friend. He observed Dr. Thurston narrowly for a full minute, appeared to enjoy his clumsy effort to cover his retreat, and then quietly sipped his coffee.

A VICTIM OF GOSSIP.
 Chicago Girl's Athletic Exercises Interpreted as Wild Filtrations by Envious Neighbors.

"If you go in for gymnastics don't take your exercises on the back porch," said a South side girl, sagely, to a Chicago Inter Ocean man.
 Maybelle Smythe is a girl who goes in for athletics and physical culture.
 She is not really interested in calis-thenics and Delsarte any more than she would be in the Sunday school library. A few days ago Miss Smythe read in the "beauty column" of a "ladies" magazine that the only real way to get the benefit of gymnastics

PUNCHED AWAY FOR DEAR LIFE. is to take exercise in the open air—the back yard or the back porch.
 "Capital idea," said Maybelle to her chum "Perhaps I won't have each side of my face blooming into an American beauty. Just watch me."
 "You said the same thing when you joined a basket ball team," remarked her chum, but Maybelle did not notice the insinuation.
 Maybelle put on her red flannel waist and short skirt early the next morning and took a stand on the back porch. "One, two, three," she began to count, and waved her arms in approved gymnastic fashion. "One, two, three," and Maybelle flung her hands about her head and wiggled her wrists. Then she swung a punching bag up at the kitchen door and punched away until she was out of breath and ready to eat two beef-steaks for breakfast.
 "My, but it's lovely, this open-air exercise," she commented. Just after luncheon Maybelle's chum rushed in, greatly excited.
 "What have you been doing, May-belle Smythe?" she demanded.
 "Nothing," said Maybelle.
 "Why, everybody in this block is talking about you perfectly awful.
 They say that before breakfast this morning you were seen out on the back porch flinging outrageously with somebody passing by on the Illinois Central train."
 "Oh, oh!" gasped Maybelle.
 "Yes, and they say that your aunt came out and remonstrated with you, and that you turned and punched her —yes, struck at her dreadfully several."
 "My dear, if we are going to be friends any more stop right there," said Maybelle.
Poor But Honest.
 Clerk—Please, sir, may I have my next month's salary in advance?
 Employer—That would be very unbusinesslike. How do I know that you will not die to-night?
 Clerk (in proud scorn)—Sir, I may be in need, but I am too much of a gentleman to do anything like that.—Collier's Weekly.

AN UNLUCKY MAN.
 "Never had no luck Anywhere," he sighed;
 Fate has kept me down,
 Or, at least, has tried;
 Never found a cent.
 All I've got I earned;
 No such word as luck,
 For as I'm concerned.
 "Never had no help Anywhere," he said;
 "Always had to work
 For each bite of bread!
 Never took a chance
 That I wasn't caught;
 Never won a bet,
 But I've lost a lot!"
 "Never had no fun
 All my life," he cried;
 "Wish when I was born
 I could just have died!
 Bet you when I'm gone
 They'll invent some way Folks can live right on
 'Till the judgment day,
 'Cause that there 'ud be Jist my luck!" said he.

 Herald.

Novel Form of a Will.
 A novel method of making a will was revealed in a suit which Count Moore, M. P., an Irishman, brought in London to set aside the testament of his sister, a woman of large wealth. She was paralyzed, and was unable to express herself by words, says the Washington Times, though when she saw the words written she knew their meaning. Her lawyers printed two sets of cards—one set showing her various properties, the other the names of her relations. The cards were shuffled and dealt out, and as she came to each name she indicated by sign the property she assigned to the owner of it. The judge upheld the will.

TO STUDY LAKE FISH.

Senator McMillan Has Introduced Bill in Congress.

Washington, May 21.—Senator McMillan has introduced a bill for the establishment of an agricultural station on the great lakes within the borders of Michigan, to aid in diffusing information concerning the fish of the lakes, and to conduct investigations into the life surrounding these fish, so that there may be a scientific basis for solution of the fisheries problem of the lakes. The station is to be under the direction of the board of regents of the University of Michigan, which is empowered to appoint a staff for the station, consisting of a director at $4,000 a year, a superintendent at $3,000 a year, and as occasion may require such scientific assistants and other helpers as required. An appropriation of $30,000 is carried in the bill.

AMUSEMENTS.

Read what the Chicago Inter-Ocean has to say about Hal Keld's masterpiece, "Roanoke," which appears at the Bell opera house for one night, Thursday, May 27:

"Of all the plays from the prolific pen of Mr. Reid, 'Roanoke' is easily conceded to be his best effort. Through a story of more than usual heart interest a vein of comedy runs, depicting in crisp, bright sentences, a tale of real life in the old dominion. Every character is true to nature."
